Scottish Archaeological Finds Allocation Panel

Forthcoming meeting of Wednesday 20 October 2021

The below Treasure Trove cases will come before the Panel at its next meeting. Should you wish to apply for any of these cases, please do so no later than:

Wednesday 22 September 2021

Case reports and reports for excavation assemblages are available on request. Any pending reports to be completed by specialists will be sent out as soon as possible. Please submit your applications by email to:

e.freeman@nms.ac.uk and please also cc. treasuretrove@nms.ac.uk

Please note that as of the Code of Practice revision in July 2014 there are new forms to apply for Treasure Trove material. If you have filled in a Standing Profile then please use the Simplified Application. If you have not logged a Standing Profile (and you do not intend to) then please fill in the Standard Application. All forms and the general caselist are available on our website:

Code of Practice: <https://treasuretrovescotland.co.uk/sites/default/assets/File/tt-code-jan-2016.pdf>

Chance finds: Ex gratia payments - Museums which are allocated material are obliged to finance the ex gratia payment which finders of objects are awarded under the Treasure Trove system. Chance finds are securely stored with the Treasure Trove Unit. Once allocation has been processed please arrange with the TTU to collect any allocated objects.

Excavation Assemblages - Excavation assemblages are not held by the TTU but are retained by the excavator until allocation. The delivery of allocated assemblages to a museum should be arranged between the excavator and museum and is not facilitated by the TTU. For all queries regarding the role of museums in the process please refer to the Code of Practice which can be found on the Treasure Trove website (address above). For all enquires please email treasuretrove@nms.ac.uk

Funding applications – We recommend that the process of grant applications, or initial communications with NFA, Art Fund, etc, proceed as soon as possible and prior to formal allocation. If you require any assistance or further information please do not hesitate to contact us and we will be happy to advise.
